ROCKVILLE NEWS

ROCKVILLE, Md., Oct. 12.—Paul Sieman, chairman, Thomas Dawson, Charles F. Kirk, Galen L. Tait and Alfred Warfield, composing the Republican State Central Committee for this county, have filed with the Supervisors of Election for the county certificates of nominations of Republican candidates for the various offices to be filled at the November election.

For the State Senate, Willis B. Burdette; House of Delegates, William E. Brown, Thomas L. Pulke, Frank L. Hoyitt and Charles T. Johnson. State's attorney, Thomas L. Dawson, county commissioner, Third district, Harry L. Willard; county commissioner, Fourth district, Frank H. Karm; sheriff, James L. Howe; judges of orphans' court, Henry C. Chaney, John S. Gillis and J. Henning Purdum, and county surveyor, E. Norman Jackson.

For the purpose of co-operating with the State conservation commission in the enforcement of the game laws and the protection of game generally, the Montgomery County Game Protective Association was organized here last evening. The officers are: President, George A. Fisher; vice president, Charles J. Lyddane; secretary, J. Roger Spates; treasurer, W. Frank Ricketts. The organization starts with a membership of thirty.

Congress must come to the rescue of the American merchant marine within a short time or the American flag will be once more seldom seen upon the commercial seas. In the opinion of Senator Jones of Washington.

"Congress must determine upon a permanent policy for the maintenance of the American merchant marine within a short time or we will be in the same position we were in before the war," Senator Jones said today.

Senator Jones is chairman of the Commerce Committee of the Senate, which is in charge of legislation with regard to the American merchant marine. The committee has been endeavoring for many months to settle upon a future policy for the American merchant marine, but thus far has taken no definite action in that direction. Many members of Congress and business men have offered suggestions, but none has yet been able to submit a concrete proposition.

Senator Jones is hopeful that once the peace treaty is disposed of the Commerce Committee can devote its entire attention to the permanent merchant marine policy in order that the legislation may be submitted to Congress early during the next session.

Those who advocate Government control of the merchant marine argue that the success of the United States Shipping Board is sufficient proof of the value of Government ownership and control of our shipping facilities.
